

Recommended Reading: A Review of the 2017 Proxy Season

Jul 14, 2017

Reading Time : 1 min

This week we highlight two analyses, one by J.P. Morgan and the other by Ernst & Young, reviewing the 2017 proxy season. The reports address board diversity; gender equality; environmental, social and governance (ESG) issues; and the normalization of shareholder activism as high priorities and key trends for many investors and boards.
