This week we highlight Bloomberg BNA's analysis "Corporate Cyber Risk Disclosures Jump Dramatically in 2017," which examines SEC annual and quarterly filings from 2010 to June 30, 2017. The findings show that more public companies are citing cybersecurity as a risk in their financial disclosures in the first half of 2017 than in all of 2016, suggesting that board and C-suite fears over data breaches may be escalating.
